The Gem Palace Jewellers

"Bejeweled Memory Lane"

There is no better place to purchase fine Indian jewelry than Jaipur, the land of the royals. The Gem Palace is situated in the heart of the city and offers an eclectic collection of traditional, royal-style ornaments. Its jewels and objets d'art are displayed in the Metropolitan Museum of Art and sold at Barneys in New York. In the decades it has been in business, its prestigious clients have included Lord Mountbatten and Lady Edwina Mountbatten, Spanish and British royal families, Hollywood and Bollywood film stars, and Mick Jagger of The Rolling Stones. The showroom is situated in an ancient haveli (Rajasthani mansion) and evokes nostalgic yesteryear memories. The rich art pieces, motifs, decor items and ornaments date back from the Mughal times right up till jewels created by artisans in the early 20th Century.
