Palace Grounds

"Grounds Of The Palace"

Palace Grounds are a popular venue for many cultural events that happen within the city. Located very close to the Bangalore Palace and within the same premises of the palace area, these grounds serve as a venue for many international concerts such as Bryan Adams, Scorpions, Deep Purple etc. This area is leased out by the palace authorities to the organizers. Many craft fairs, exhibitions or other such cultural events also take place here. There are many gates to access the grounds as it is spread across many acres. One can also see the tower of the Tudor styled Bangalore Palace from these grounds.

Chowdiah Memorial Hall

"Cultural Vibes"

The first thing that you notice about this hall is the unique shape of the building's exterior. Chowdiah Memorial Hall (CMH) is shaped in the form of a violin, as it was built after the renowned violinist Mr. T. Chowdiah. The surrounding areas are spic and span with well-pruned gardens and mowed lawns. With plush interiors and modern installations in the sound system, the hall accommodates a little more than one thousand people in the audience. Famous not only for its architecture but also, for the diverse cultural events that it hosts, this stage has seen numerous musical concerts, recitals, plays, spiritual sessions and classical performances. The venue is often rented for weddings, local events, and other celebrations. Situated behind it, is the serene Sankey Tank, which is a lot more than just a water reservoir.

The Humming Tree

"Esthetic In Every Way"

The Humming Tree is the brainchild of Nikhil Barua. Primarily a performance space for musicians, this bar dons a chic industrial look. You will see elements of cement, metal and bricks in its walls while the suspended chains, light fixtures, unique band frames, French windows, cozy sofas, distressed furniture and a rustic terrace give it an infectious creative vibe. This bi-level structure is spread across 492.39 square meters (5300 square feet) and even their menu reflects innovation. These include dishes Chicken Banh, Beer Battered Fish and Chips, Jalan Alori Chicken Wings, Louisiana Crab Cakes and, Lamb and Hummus Burger. Enjoy the happy hours with a choice drink. Besides incredible gigs from national and international artists, they also have monthly stand-up comedy shows. Don't miss this spot when in town.
