Up at The O2

"Feel on Top of the World"

For those seeking adventure thrills in London, a unique experience awaits at the O2 in Greenwich. Opened in 2012, Up At The O2 allows visitors to climb over the famed O2 dome using a walkway suspended by the O2's masts. The summit is the viewing platform- 53 meters (174 feet) above the ground offering a panoramic view of the Thames Barrier, The Shard, Canary Wharf and Anish Kapoor's ArcelorMittal Orbit. The climb and descent, although not steep, are guaranteed to get your adrenaline pumping. Each expedition is guided by expert climbers and visitors are strapped in safety harnesses and special suits. Booking ahead is highly recommended and priority tickets are also available.

Go Ape!

"The Jungle Life"

The cheekily named Go Ape! takes you on a thrilling jungle adventure in the lush confines of Trent Park. Take in the sylvan landscape as you zip-line across the forest or go crazy hopping across trees, with their Tarzan Swings. Their sensational skateboard zips are for those seeking an extra dose of thrill. With specially designed courses and activities, kids will have a time of their life at Go Ape! The two courses on offer promise a different adventure on repeat visits.
