Rheinfrank Antique & Vintage Jewellery

"Reliving History"

At Rheinfrank Antique & Vintage Jewellery, the tales of Georgian, Art Nouveau and Art Deco eras come alive through elegant and original ornaments from the 1750s to 1950s. The store interiors are minimalist with parquet flooring, white wall cabinets and glass displays. As you enter the showroom, the golden glint of ornate brooches, cufflinks, pendants and lockets catch the eye. Shop for earrings and bracelets made by stringing hundreds of seed pearls in swirly patterns and golden brooches with miniatures depicting Georgian women. Whether you are looking for heavy metallic pendants with European effigies, shimmering amethyst and diamond rings, or gold lockets with white swans, you are sure to find it here. Every jewel has a story behind it and the staff gladly narrates them to customers. No wonder then, that this is one of Berlin's best shops for English, French, German and Japanese vintage ornaments.

Trödel- und Kunstmarkt

"Antigüidades Demais"

O mais antigo mercado de antigüidades de Berlim se tornou mais e mais popular com o passar dos anos, e os preços acompanharam o processo. Mesmo assim, se você for bom na pechincha, pode encontrar uma boa lembrança para levar consigo por um preço decente. A maioria dos vendedores são colecionadores profissionais e muitas das lojas oferecem genuínas antigüidades e coisas realmente raras. O sortido de bens oferecidos inclui quase tudo que existe no mundo- desde os livros, discos, roupas, louça, móveis, brinquedos, objetos da antiga Alemanha Oriental e memorabilia de Berlim. O mercado se-estende do Ernest-Reuter-Platz até a estação S-Bahn de Tiergarten.
