

"Best Street Food in Frankfurt am Main"

Criado por : Cityseeker

📍 3 Localizações indicadas

Ebert's Suppenstube

"Charming Food Stall"

An extension of Ebert Feinkost, a family-run butcher shop, Ebert's Suppenstube is just across the street. This charming food stall is known for its hearty soups, great sausages, and the delectable schnitzel sandwich. Everything here is pocket friendly and the place is always brimming with people who want a taste of the scrumptious fare.

📷 by Eva K. ©

☎ +49 69 2097 3877

🌐 www.ebert-feinkost.de/

📍 Große Bockenheimer Straße 31, Frankfurt

Köylü-Döner

"Kebab, anyone?"

Köylü-Döner is a fabulous take away joint where you can also sit and enjoy some great kebab dishes. This restaurant is very popular in the neighborhood for its kebab skewers full of succulent flavor. You can enjoy different types of meat and their doner specialty, which is just delicious. The ambiance simple and no-frills, but the service is quick and attentive. They have a counter where they place different types of spices and herbs and you can season your skewers as per your liking. The late hours and budget-friendly pricing have made this little eatery a fast favorite with the late-night crowd.

📷 by Alanyadk ©

☎ +49 69 62 8913

📍 Paradiesgasse 65, Frankfurt

Aroma

"Best Falafel"

Aroma is a small eatery that specializes in budget-friendly Middle Eastern fare. The place is always busy with people stopping by for a quick bite on the go. From delicious falafel wraps to generously sized platters, the food is simple but oh so delicious. Service is prompt and friendly, ensuring a great dining experience from start to finish. Favorites include the shawarma sandwich and the falafel platter.

📷 by mirsa ©

☎ +49 69 2571 7546

📍 Oeder Weg 80, Frankfurt

JUNTE-SE A NÓS À:

cityseeker.com