Pizza al Volo

"Pocket-Friendly Pizza"

A hidden gem of Dorsoduro, Pizza Al Volo is one of Venice's best kept secrets. Offering authentic, scrumptious pizza pies, this small eatery is notoriously famous for its tasty offerings. The place is almost a blink-n-miss, but once eaten here, you'd want to keep returning, for its unbeatable staples and the rock-bottom prices! Generous proportions, traditional recipes, extremely pocket-friendly prices and a warm, friendly service make Pizza Al Volo such a winner, even without a five-star ambiance and plush interiors. Definitely worth a try!

Frito-Inn

"Made-to-Order Fish and More"

The only way to locate Frito-Inn is to spot a large crowd around a window at the Campo San Leonardo. Every morning people assemble around their stall waiting to get their hand on some of Frito's perfectly fried calamari, Mozzarella in carrozza, prosciutto and more. The best thing about Frito-Inn is that they serve freshly caught fried fish in an amicable Italian atmosphere at cheap prices. Wash down your seafood with a glass of white wine or soft drinks and call it a meal!
