New England Aquarium

"Amazing Aquatica"

Established in 1969, New England Aquarium attracts over a million tourists every year. The humungous 200,000-gallon Giant Ocean Tank is the main highlight of this museum. This tank has a simulated Caribbean coral reef in which sharks, sea turtles, moray eels and tropical fish cruise by crowds of children pressed in awe against the glass. In addition, other marine galleries offer glimpses of the piranha, sea otters and three species of penguins. During your visit, you can also go for whale-watching cruises, seal shows and visit the IMAX Theater. A must-visit for kids and ocean lovers!

The Red Wagon

"Luxe Children's Toys & Clothes"

Red Wagon is the place to go for a baby shower or child's birthday gift. No matter how big your gift, from barrette to layette, your purchase will be wrapped for you in recycled parcel paper and sweet raffia ribbon at no extra cost, which is a rarity these days. Choose from a selection of soft Angel Dear snuggle toys and rattles, or an array of educational toys for all ages including the popular Melissa and Doug line of puzzles and games. A vast selection of books includes all of the classics, such as Boston's own Make Way For Ducklings in addition to modern books for younger kids. The boutique is most renowned for its truly exquisite children's wardrobe of hand-selected local and international fashions. Colorful painted armoires and funky shelves house a large selection of clothing, from classic garments like Petit Bebe smock dresses to modern items like Little Marc Jacobs graphic tees. A plethora of roll neck sweaters include Red Sox and nautical themes by various designers (monogramming available). Other brands include Zulily, Charlie Rocket, Lulu, Catimini, Clayeux, Coccoli and Deux par Deux.
