Improv Asylum

"Sketch Comedy"

Sketch comedy in the style of Saturday Night Live and Second City is performed here by this namesake improvisational group. A favorite among local comedy junkies, performances at this North End venue have an interactive environment where the talented cast brings on something new and fresh each time they hit the stage and audience participation is not only requested, but required.

Nick's Comedy Stop

"Theatre District Location"

A highly rated comedy venue where up-and-coming comedians can hone their craft, this club has been a mainstay in a good local comedy scene. While they may lack the touring headliners that perform at other clubs, you can certainly count on getting your share of laughs at this fun spot. Ticket range depends on the performance. Call ahead for a show schedule and specific show prices. Admission is reserved for those over 18 years of age.

Charles Playhouse

"Two Levels of drama"

Looking for a lively and interactive bit of theater? This playhouse may be the ticket. It is home to two long-running theatrical productions. Boston's longest-running production, Shear Madness debuted here in 1980. Since then, more than 5 million people around the world have seen the much-acclaimed whodunit set in a 1960s-era hair salon. Blue Man Group is a wildly popular production featuring three actors covered in blue paint who cavort about the stage accompanied by loud rock music and plenty of audience interaction.
