Heist

"Top 40's Nightclub"

Dupont Circle's nightlife has a headlining star, and it is called Heist. A sophisticated underground nightclub and lounge featuring unique cocktails and a hip crowd, this spot is guaranteed to be popping on any given night of the week. With a great sound system blaring the latest hits, an expansive dance floor and even a menu of delectable appetizers, Heist promises "grandeur fun and light-hearted delinquency." They are perhaps best known for their beautiful bar area - the sparkly light fixtures on the ceiling bring to mind a starry night sky.

Black Cat

"A Little Bit of Rock-n-Roll"

If you're a music enthusiast constantly on the lookout for exhilarating live acts, Black Cat is the place to come to see the latest local bands. This club features rock, pop and rhythm-and-blues artists and has been known to book some big names, such as Morphine and The Foo Fighters, frequently. Live acts perform in the main space while an eclectic mix of young partygoers samples tasteful concoctions in the Red Room. Light fare is available, and the bar has microbrews on tap.

Tropicalia

"Bringing Brazil to DC!"

Although its physical location makes Tropicalia easy to walk past, its reputation ensures that people search for the staircase beside the subway that leads to this entertaining space. There is none of the dinginess you would normally associate with a basement space; on the contrary, you will find psychedelic lights in pretty much any color you can think of. Situated in the U Street Corridor, this dance hall attempts to bring some Brazilian flavor to the U Street Corridor of Washington, DC. The DJ ensures that you groove to the Brazilian beats on the dance floor, but there's more to come; you can also catch live Brazilian bands on Sunday nights.

Ultrabar

"Five Floors of Clubbing Fun"

Spread out over five luxurious floors, Ultrabar is any club lover's paradise. The club heralds itself as a combination of an ultra-exclusive lounge and a trendy, happening nightclub. Each floor has its own sound system and style and plays host to a number of events. The main floor pays homage to its beautiful historic architecture (it was once a bank) with the addition of glowing chic chandeliers and a constant parade of DC's most popular DJs. For those looking to enjoy the ultimate club experience, bottle service is available throughout the club.
