The Reserve

"Sophisticated Underground Lounge"

Located in the basement of what was once a bank in a 1924 Beaux Arts-style building, The Reserve is a trendy and elegant nightspot. This unique nightclub has an old-world ambiance with a hint of contemporary touches. Head down a beautiful stairway, walk across a glass panel filled with golden bars, and step through a huge metal bank vault to enter this lounge and club. While you stand under a sparkling chandelier or admire the old safe deposits lining the wall, you can enjoy a handcrafted cocktail or a gourmet snack while listening to live entertainment.

Parque Griffith

"Selva urbana de Los Angeles"

Espalhado por 4.210 acres (1.704 hectares) do extremo leste das montanhas de Santa Monica, o Griffith Park é frequentemente chamado de "o Central Park de Los Angeles". O parque municipal é um dos maiores espaços verdes urbanos da América do Norte. Há amplas oportunidades para atividades ao ar livre, como caminhadas, passeios a cavalo e tênis, além de atrações populares como o Observatório Griffith, o Zoológico de Los Angeles, o Teatro Grego e o icônico letreiro de Hollywood. Na confluência de vegetação paisagística e deserto acidentado, o Griffith Park é o local recreativo mais precioso de Los Angeles e uma fuga cênica.

Sunset Ranch Hollywood

"Rent A Horse"

If you're an out-of-towner and miss riding the plains, you can cure your equestrian nostalgia by renting a horse and riding through the Hollywood Hills and Griffith Park. There are plenty of options here, including one and two hour rides during the day for anyone over the age of seven. A very popular option is the Friday night moonlight ride. Just arrive for a three-hour round-trip ride, which culminates with dinner at a nearby Mexican restaurant.
