Hotel Valencia Riverwalk

"A Modern Oasis"

On San Antonio's lush, spectacular River Walk, Hotel Valencia Riverwalk blends "hip" with "classic" for unforgettable elegance in a contemporary luxury hotel. Hotel Valencia Riverwalk delivers a Four Star experience, from dramatic decor to stellar service. The hotel's interiors, designed by L.A.-based Dodd Mitchell, are rich with wood and other elements of nature. Relax in the custom-made, seven-layer bed and thoughtfully appointed guest rooms. Enjoy critically-acclaimed dining at Citrus, the onsite restaurant with an exciting New American menu created by Chef Jeffery Balfour. See and be seen at what's become one of the city's hottest nightspots - the hotel's Vbar Lounge. Complimentary wired and wireless high speed Internet is available throughout the hotel.

Omni La Mansión del Rio

"Luxury Hotel on the River Walk"

What was once a private Catholic school in the mid-19th Century is now one of San Antonio's most elegant hotels. Located on the city's famous River Walk, La Mansion del Rio boasts historical Spanish Missionary architecture, lush gardens, sparkling fountains and luxurious amenities. This place has been the first choice in hotels by dignitaries, celebrities, tourists and discriminating locals for decades.

The Westin Riverwalk

"Elegant Comfort on the Riverwalk"

One of the newest properties on the Riverwalk, this elegant hotel combines all the comforts the Westin chain offers with the beauty and excitement of the city's most popular attraction. The hotel is just steps away from an array of dining and entertainment options, both along the River Walk and throughout downtown. As expected from Westin hotels, the guest rooms are beautifully appointed, with many of them offering balconies overlooking the river.

Hilton Palacio del Rio

"Beautiful Hotel on the River Walk"

This beautiful River Walk hotel was built specifically to accommodate visitors of the 1968 World's Fair. Curiously, it was built in modules, with each nearly complete guest room lifted into place by crane in order to meet the construction deadline. Every room features a private balcony and the hotel's beautiful lobby features intricately detailed mosaic paintings and tiles. This property is known for its impeccable service. The hotel boasts the longest consecutive run of Four-Diamond recognition by the American Automobile Association (AAA).

Menger Hotel

"Historic Hotel Near the Alamo"

This historic hotel is located on Alamo Plaza, literally next door to the famed Alamo. Built in 1859, it's one of the oldest buildings in the city and is the oldest continuously operating hotel west of the Mississippi River. Two American presidents became enamored with the hotel - Theodore Roosevelt and his Rough Riders enjoyed hanging out at the Menger Bar, and President Bill Clinton developed a penchant for the hotel's proprietary mango ice cream during his visits to the city. As with most of the city's oldest buildings, this hotel is reportedly haunted by as many as 32 different friendly specters.

The Emily Morgan Hotel - a DoubleTree by Hilton

"Historic Hotel Near The Alamo"

Housed in an architecturally stunning Gothic-style building constructed in 1924, this hotel has been beautifully restored and offers one of the best locations downtown. Literally across the street from the Alamo, the property is just two blocks from the River Walk and a short walk from many other downtown attractions. Guest rooms have luxurious amenities such a whirlpool bathtubs, plush bathrobes, high quality linens, in-room spa services and tastefully appointed decor. Dine at the onsite ORO Restaurant & Bar with seasonal offerings or swim laps in the heated outdoor pool. Business travelers will appreciate the business and fitness centers, ideal for keeping up with work and fitness routines!
