Tipsy Crow

"The Oldest Building in the Gaslamp"

This bar is housed in the oldest building in the Gaslamp Quarter. Come and mingle with beautiful people and groove to either live music or a DJ with tunes from the 1970s through the 1990s. Hardwood floors, soaring ceilings and a 40-foot long mahogany bar give a touch of elegance and class. There are three levels, all offering a large number of beers and delicious cocktails.

The Shout House

"Scream & Shout"

The Shout House offers rockin' entertainment. It has a stage with dueling pianos where two talented musicians perform 1950's rock 'n roll hits. They keep the night alive by taking audience requests! Sing along or just enjoy the excitement with some drinks and food. The restaurant is also available for private parties, events and receptions.

barleymash

"Food, Fun, and Friendly Atmosphere"

The long tables at barleymash are perfect for enjoying a meal and locally brewed beer with friends. All of the dishes, such as the crispy pork belly confit and stout braised short ribs, are made from scratch using local and organic ingredients. As far as drinks go, bourbon and beer are staples here, and their selection is extensive. The atmosphere is energetic, and you can find DJs and dancing here regularly.

Altitude Sky Lounge

"Rooftop Grandeur"

This rooftop bar was voted by Conde Naste as one of the 25 best bars and nightclubs in the world. Altitude has an eclectic mix of the stunning ocean view and skyline as well as the beautiful people that party there. Located on the 22nd floor of the Gaslamp Marriott, it has a spacious dance area and a lounge. This is a great place to catch the night game action at PETCO Park which is next door. A great place to see and be seen!

Sunshine Company Saloon

"Great Late-Night Spot"

Along with being the largest bar in Ocean Beach, the Sunshine Company Saloon Limited boasts several other amenities. The upstairs patio has a perfect view for watching the sunset out by the famous OB pier or for enjoying a cool drink on a hot evening. Downstairs are four pool tables, two full bars equipped with several taps, and several tables and chairs for relaxing or snacking on Mexican food from the adjacent restaurant, Livingston's. Featuring a different special for every day of the week, this popular bar gets a lot of attention and is known as one of the premiere party spots in Ocean Beach. -Eric Fischgrund
