Original Hamburger Works

"Juicy Burgers"

Big, juicy burgers and tender chicken breast sandwiches served steaming off the grill are the highlight here. While hot dogs, fish and chips, and a variety of soups, salads and chili are available, the real draw is the Big One, a meaty succulent burger with all the works. Try the classic with bacon, sauteed mushrooms and cheese. The whole family will love the condiment bar, where you can all load up your burger with the perfect combo of toppings. To work up an appetite, you could also challenge your friends to a game of pool or ping-pong.

Ingo's Tasty Food

"Gourmet Food Stand"

Ingo's is a little, hip food stand serving up a menu full of big flavors. Just because its a food stand, don't think the food is lowbrow-in fact its quite the opposite. Try out tasty plates of things like fresh shattered potato chips, the No. 1 Tuna Burger or the Kokuho rose brown rice bowl. Ingo's is also well known for its burgers, which come with toppings like La Quercia pancetta, sauerkraut and a host of delicious cheeses and sauces. Ingo's also serves up cocktails, wines and craft beer and even does a weekday happy hour that lasts eight hours.

Rocket Burger & Subs

"Rocket Fuel"

Located in the Glendale neighborhood of Moon Valley, Rocket Burger is known for its delectable burgers and subs as well as its 'Wall of Soda'. The signature cheeseburger made with secret sauce and shredded lettuce is exceptional and the Gyro Burger made with Tzatziki sauce is also highly recommended. Other menu items include huge subs, salads, sandwiches and of course, a mouth-watering array of sodas on display, from the rare Dublin Dr. Pepper to Faygo and Blenheim Red Hot Ginger Ale, every time you visit is a new, sugary adventure.

Paradise Valley Burger Company

"More That Just Meat & Bun"

Burger aficionados in the North Phoenix area know where to go to get their fix: Paradise Valley Burger Company. Opened in 2011 as a humble, burger-joint but over the years it has garnered attention for its burgers like the mega-popular Beach House that comes topped with roasted green chili, smoked mozzarella and Pico de Gallo or the decadent Brulee Burger topped with a fried egg, bacon, onion, burnt sugar and Havarti. Don't fret though, the Burger Co. also serves up sides just as decadent as the burgers like french toast fries or sweet potato tater tots. In addition to the burgers, they also serve a variety of tacos and taco salads, served in your choice of four different styles.
